

What are Rosehill's ākonga Great C's?

The Rosehill school whānau and community believe the Great C's are important for all our student to learn. In collaboration with whānau, the team around the child will establish what is most important for each student to learn considering their age and stage.

Rosehill ākonga are learning to...

Communicators

- Have an effective means of communication
- Communicate with different people and for different purposes

Capable

- Develop independence skills such a mobility, toileting, dressing
- Become independent in the community; money skills, transport training, socialising

Calm

Understand and manage emotions and how they impact on others

Learning social skills and how to act in different social and cultural situations

Confident

- Develop confidence and a sense of self worth
- Value and appreciate our culture and the cultures of others
- show perseverance and taking pride in accomplishments

Curious

- Be open to learning new things
- Have passions and interests

Choice makers

- Communicate likes and dislikes
- Problem solve
- Make healthy choices

Careful

- Keep safe
  - at home
  - in the community
  - online

Caring

- Play and interact appropriately with others
- Care for and help others